

POSITION DESCRIPTION

TITLE: Virtual Preschool Teacher of the Deaf

BASIC FUNCTION: Plan and develop curriculum for virtually instructing preschool aged students with a hearing loss in subject content areas as well as developing and implementing appropriate I.E.P. goals to address specific learning needs.

MAJOR DUTIES:

- Develop I.E.P.'s for assigned students. Confer with related services staff, educational staff, parents and school districts to write individual educational plans. Evaluate students' progress with respect to their I.E.P.'s. Complete progress reports on I.E.P.s
- Attend I.E.P. reviews for each student with CSE representatives as required by law
- Provide instruction in appropriate academic and developmental level subjects per approved curricula. Foster interest and develop skills in effective communication and provide multiple experiences for usage in school. Encourage effective communication at home and in the community
- Continually review student progress on NY State Standards. Interpret and use results to develop instruction
- Communicate with parents through regular dialog between home and school, including Open House, "class home page" on-line, e-mails, news and letters and phone calls
- Use audiovisual aids, videos, field trips and demonstrations to stimulate and encourage student interest and achievement in required subjects and enrichment courses
- Present subject matter by using evidence based strategies for Deaf and Hard of Hearing students including differentiated instruction to maximize understanding and to relate content to meaningful situations

- Provide a leadership role within the classroom to establish mutual respect and motivation for learning in cooperative and inclusive groups
- Participate actively in a team approach in cooperative teaching and planning with other teachers, counselors, psychologists, and behavioral consultants
- Attend conventions, conferences and seminars to keep abreast of latest developments in teaching and instruction
- All other duties as assigned by supervisor

QUALIFICATIONS:

- New York State certification as Teacher of the Deaf
- New York State certification in specific content area (if required)
- Masters Degree in Deaf Education
- Experience in teaching deaf students preferred
- An SCPI level of Advanced preferred in American Sign Language
- Knowledge of the relationship between early childhood development, cochlear implants, hearing aids, and other hearing devices strongly preferred
- Knowledge and experience with classroom management and methods of instructing Deaf and Hard of Hearing students in a virtual setting
- Knowledge and experience with Mac computers

TO APPLY:

- Forward a resume with cover letter to:
Fax 914-703-4004 or email employment@nysd.net

New York School For The Deaf is an Equal Opportunity Employer